

The KLove station is a very important to me and is becoming part of my daily life. Through out many discouraging times in my life, I was able to keep going through the encouraging messages I heard. This station is also important to many of my friends with the same belief. Please do not let LPFM replace the station K-Love that has brought so much positive messages to the community.